NO ORDER no Oracle

Where Are The Prophets Of God?

It is a fact that the world is in chaos. People are frightened and uncertain as to the future. Even the people of God are perplexed and confused.

So where are the prophets of God today? Where are the men and women who are supposed to have a word from the Lord? A word that forecasts the mind and heart of God for His people. Without a word of assurance from God the people of God will surely sink into despair and sin. That is what is happening right now as I write these words.

I want to put you in remembrance of something. We are the children of God. We are citizens of the Kingdom of God. Though we live in the world, we are not of the world. Ok. So, how are we to know what to expect from the world, as well as from our God?

How are we to know how to navigate and dispense the gospel, if we don't receive guidance from our Master? It is not the will of the Father that we are blind to His plans.

Why Do The Prophets Err In Their Prophesying?

There are several reasons the prophets of God are not able to hear and speak the mind of God.

1. Personal Sin:

The prophets of God must be of a serious disposition and not given over to joking and vain babbling. The prophet must consistently pour themselves into God by abandoning his/her own agendas, ways, desires and ambition. They must be given over to declaring the oracles of God. These oracles must come from a vessel that delights in them. If the prophets of God all met the criteria above, then their prophesying would carry the anointing that is able to pierce the hearts of men.

The scripture below gives insight as to the qualifications for working in the prophetic ministry.

> John 14:21
> He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

In this manifestation is the undeniable presence and work of God. This is how God rewards His servants in this dispensation of grace and truth. He manifests His power through them, especially through the gifts He has given. But the son of God must not be a vessel of dishonor. He must walk in obedience to every word that has come from God. This is simply walking in the Spirit.

Jesus made sure we understood that not even He was not exempt from obedience.

> John 15:10-12
> 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
> 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
> 12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

Take note also in the above passage; if we want to walk in the joy of the Lord as it pertains to life and ministry, we too must obey the commandments of God. It is very simple. We must love the Father with all our heart and one another with the same fervency.

2. Rejecting Apostolic Order:

I want to deal with the number one reason the Body of Christ is not entertaining a truly profound prophetic ministry. For the most part the Body of Christ is not operating according to the order of God.

> 1 Corinthians 12:28
> And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

Paul makes it clear that the apostle was the first gift set in the Body of Christ. Afterwards, came the prophets. Now we know that God is very intentional in His doings. This order of the gifts is explained by our Lord as He spoke with the apostles.

> Matthew 13:11
> He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

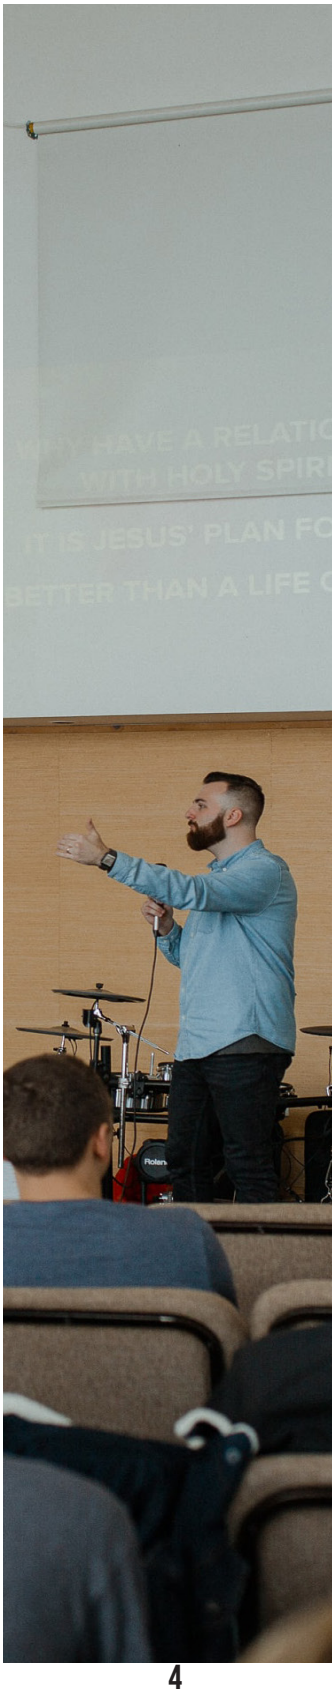
If indeed the apostle was the first gift to be set in the church; then it follows that it is the apostles' doctrine that reveals the mystery of Christ, defines salvation, and sets the boundaries of the faith. This may all sound like a lot of theology that seems confusing, but the truth is, it is quite simple.

The apostles were the only people on the planet that were given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God. In this mystery of the Kingdom of God is the entire content of the New Testament.

If the prophets are to confirm the word given to the apostles, then they too must be of one heart with God and the apostles of God. There can be no division; for the confirmation of the message, must come from the singleness of their heart. They must be living epistles, able to be read by men.

Therefore, whatever gifts were set in the Body afterwards, must rely upon a knowledge of the mystery set forth by the apostles. Consequently, the function of all the other gifts are tied to the revelations given to the apostles. To reject apostolic order is to reject a complete understanding of the mystery of Christ.



Prophetic Order

The prevailing mindset in the Body of Christ today seems to suggest that the prophet is above the order God set in the church. He has no accountability, not even to his pastor. Nevertheless, we have scripture that reveals the governance of the prophet's ministry in the church.

> 1 Corinthians 14:29-33
> 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.
> 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
> 31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

> 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
> 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

There is also another aspect of 'order' that is rarely, if ever, mentioned in describing the prophet's ministry. The mystery of Christ is the theme of the New Covenant. It is essential that those who are given the gift of prophecy be knowledgeable of that mystery.

> Ephesians 3:2-5
> 2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:
> 3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,
> 4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)
> 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

The mystery of Christ is poured into the church by the apostles. They are the ones first entrusted with it. That is why the prophet's gift is referred to as secondary. All the recipients of the gifts of God rely on their understanding of the Word of God given by the apostles.

As for the prophets of God, one might wonder why they are placed in the above scripture in a way that seems to make them equal or a better word would be the 'same' as the apostles.

The answer is simple. When the apostles received the revelation of the mysteries of God, they alone received it. The apostles then poured that word into the pastors, teachers, evangelists, and yes, even the prophets. The prophets of God must be taught the Word of God, otherwise, they would not fully understand their own prophesying.

So yes, the prophets receive revelation from God, but that revelation does not stand alone. It is always a confirmation of the Word of God. "Name it and claim it," does not confirm the Word of God; nor does, "the old man or lower nature" war against one's higher nature. It is not a word that true apostles pour into the Body. Yet, there are those professing to be the prophets of God, who prophesy such things.

It is the 'Order' of God in the church that calls for a judging of the word spoken by the prophets. Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge (1 Corinthians 14:29). Let us do all things decently and in order.

3. Entangling Themselves With The Affairs Of The World:

Many of the American prophets could be used as prototypes as to what not to do with your prophetic ministry. Though I am very cognizant of the sensitivity of the people of God when speaking of their national elections, we cannot deny the fact that God brought many of them to an open shame.

The truth is, the prophets of God, or rather many who profess to be prophets of the Most High, gave themselves wholeheartedly over to their party affiliations. They were no longer prophets speaking the mind and heart of the Father. They became politicians using their platforms and the nature of their gift to campaign for their candidates. Thus, they prophesied an outcome of the 2020 election that did not come to pass.

Embarrassed by their error, many of them ran for cover. They have hidden their faces from the Body of Christ. We are on the cusp of another national election, but you can't get a peep out of the men and women who proclaimed themselves to be the voice of God.

Have their voices been silenced? Or is it that they have come to realize the fact that they do not have a sure word from God? Yet they prophesied in His name. They declared things that God did not say. And now it is manifest that He did not say the things they attributed to Him.

Prophets, pastors, and evangelists alike, were all caught up in the emotional wantings, and the lust for political power. They wanted their party to rule in this world. They used God's pulpits and other platforms to forecast their trust, and the ability of their party to secure their livelihood and political agendas.

Now they did all of this in spite of this scripture . . . No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier (2 Timothy 2:4).

NOTES

THE POWER of PROPHECY

> 1 Corinthians 14:22-24
> 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
> 23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?
> 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all*:*

He is convinced of all: prophesying is the God of all creation speaking directly to those in the sound of His voice. (Rev.22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.). When the script says he is convinced of all, or by all, it means he knows that he has encountered God. However, I must also say here that there is only one thing that can impede the person hearing and identifying the voice of God. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; (Romans 1:28).

> 1 Corinthians 14:25
> And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest;

Prophesying has the power to destroy the yokes in the life of an unbeliever. Thus, the scripture infers that the secret yearnings of an unbeliever's heart will be manifest in the presence of the Spirit of God.

Note also that the script did not say the secrets of the heart would be revealed. The reason this is important is because many have erred in trying to work the gift. They have reduced it to speaking to an individual about himself. Thus, they have caused the Body to be constantly looking for a personal word from the prophet.

Although a true prophet is able to speak a word of knowledge directly to an individual, that is not the function of the gift spoken of here. Prophecy is the testimony of Jesus Christ. It is God revealing Himself to all who will hear.

Therefore, prophecy has the power to manifest or make known the secrets of one's heart. It can expose a desire to know God. But it can also manifest a rejection of the God who exposes Himself in the prophecy.

So now we come to the manifestation of the heart that is convinced of God.

> 1 Corinthians 14:25
> ...and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

Let's take another look at verse 24:

> 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all*:*

Prophesying has the power to convince the hearer that they have entertained God. Therefore, one is judged by his response to that encounter. He will either fall down and submit to God, or he will simply reject the God he has heard.

Reference Scripture

> John 6:44
> No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

I also feel that there is a need to clarify the meaning of this passage. It simply means that no one can come to Jesus for salvation, except God exposes Himself to that individual.

But what about the backslider? Can he get back to God without God drawing him? The backslider left the faith of his own free will. He made a choice to stop serving God. He must now make the same choice to return. That is his responsibility, not God's.

NOTES

DO I SPEAK as a Prophet?

I know that God called me to serve Him and His people as an apostle. But I always wondered about the prophetic gift I also knew I had. So much so, until I began to question my calling as an apostle. Of course, the Lord settled the apostle issue pretty quickly. Not by saying anything to me about it at first; but by doing the work of an apostle through me.

Now for your information...
One might think, "Well, why didn't He (God) just speak to you again about your apostleship to set your mind at ease?" I hope this is a teachable moment for you as you embark on your ministry journey.

From the very beginning of my salvation, God used me as a teacher of His Word. I was very comfortable as a teacher. I loved it. Then came evangelism. I traveled to different places, and was used mightily in the gifts of healing and the laying on of hands. I liked that also.

But then He told me to start a church. Now I questioned this in my heart. But I knew He had spoken. So I started the church. Now, I was working as a pastor. But then He gave me another church and another church and another church. You get the picture.

I knew for certain five years into my ministry that I was called by God to be an apostle. However, He began to use me in the prophetic gift a lot. This was something He had also done before I knew of the apostleship. Therefore, having used me in the prophetic so much; it caused me to think, "Maybe I am a prophetess." This would surely make me a lot more acceptable in the church world.

I was told by God, things that were going to happen in the future; and they would come to pass. Many of these things are documented. Well, what am I: teacher, evangelist, pastor, prophetess, or apostle?

I could not pretend that I didn't know God had called me to the apostleship. But He did not say anything about any of this until now. During the writing of this book, He said,

> "You obeyed me. You walked, in the things I set before you. The rumblings of your heart did not drive you to disobedience. You did not allow the questioning of your own heart to override that which you knew I had spoken to you. Now consider this. Your story is the same as the others: Peter, James John and Paul. They all walked in the other gifts. They all prophesied things to come. I am using you, even as I used John to write what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Carry on, Apostle Mary."

The object of this story is for you to focus on the work God has set before you, instead of the title of the gift you have received. Do the work. The gift will manifest its own identity.

The Operation Of The Gift

Revelation 22:9-21 is a prophecy, spoken by John, the Revelator, to the Church. Here we are able to see the true operation of the prophetic gift. I want you to focus on the color coding I have done to the verses in this prophecy. The blue is John, the red is Jesus.

Revelation 22:8-13

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

*12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

*13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Here we see John has a guide that is revealing the events to come and the chronological order of those events. We also know that the guide is another prophet who has made it into Heaven long before John. However, the point I also want to make is what the prophet said to John, and John himself repeated it to us.

While John is speaking directly to the Church, Jesus begins to speak directly to the Church through John. This is the true operation of the prophet's ministry. He is one with the Word of God, and he is one with the mind of God. He is simply one with God. Follow the color coding and determine how God makes Himself one with the message He gives the prophet.

Revelation 22:14-21

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith,

Surely I come quickly.

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The operation here is the same as was done when Jesus was with His disciples.

John 14:8-9

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

After Phillip asked Jesus to show them the Father, the Father quickly replied. (Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip?). Immediately, Jesus continued the answer...he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

NOTES

False Prophecies

We are in a time where the church is greatly suffering from its lack of order. The scriptures promised us that in the last days false prophets will arise and deceive many, nevertheless, many of us play ignorant to what God is plainly showing us.

> Deuteronomy 18:22
> When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass*, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but* the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously*: thou shalt not be afraid of him.*

The scriptures are very clear as it relates to identifying the voice of God through the prophets, however, it is our responsibility to adhere to what God has already explained.

...if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken...

If a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord concerning events of the future, it is evident that God has spoken through that prophet if the events actually occur. However, we see many in the church operating contrary to what is outlined. Many have spoken words in the name of the Lord that have not come to pass. In some cases the very opposite.

The scripture straightforwardly says, that if this is the case, the Lord has not spoken. However, when we have a love for personalities or even our own will, we will not mind putting a spin on false prophecies to convince ourselves that we did not miss God. However, if you have ever spoken or believed a false prophecy, the very thing you need to do is examine why you believed it in the first place.

> For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect*.*

> John 10:27
> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me*:*

> John 10:4-5
> 4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
> 5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

It does not matter how convincing a false prophecy is - the elect of God cannot be deceived. The following scripture gives us insight into why this is so.

> 1 John 4:1&4
> 1 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

> 4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

The Holy Ghost, which is the Spirit of Truth, abides in us. He is a greater influence on our hearts than the lies of the devil and of the heart. If we are truly in fellowship with God, the Holy Spirit will indicate to us whether the things we are hearing are of God or not.

> 1 John 2:26-27
> 26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.
> 27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

The anointing of the Holy Spirit, will always reveal the heart and mind of the Father to our hearts. This is a duty He has taken upon Himself and His faithfulness to it keeps us from being deceived.

How then are so many in the Body of Christ being deceived?

It is one thing if we address the truth that many we call the Body of Christ are not actually filled with the Holy Ghost, however, let us speak concerning those who are actually saved. A lack of fellowship with God causes us neither to be able to hear the voice of God or discern His leading. Fellowship is more than communication with the Father, it actually begins with a sinless life.

> 1 John 1:5-6
> 5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
> 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

Sin is a blinding force that separates us from our Father. God does not fellowship with those who walk in sin. Moreover, if we do not have the heart to purify ourselves, we will be blinded and deceived by sin.

Here is where the line needs to be drawn. When many hear sin, they simply stop at lying, stealing, violence and lusts of the world. But our desires and mentality can be sinful too.

> 1 John 2:15-16
> 15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
> 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

To love the world and the things thereof is sin. Consider what I say with a keen mind. God is addressing more than simply the actions of lust and pride, but also a love for the world.

> 2 Timothy 2:4
> No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life*; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.*

> 2 Peter 2:20
> For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome*, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.*

ENTANGLE - to weave in, to entwine, i.e. to involve with

The scripture warns us not to get entangled or involved with the affairs of this world. When we become entwined with the world, we will begin to see spiritual things through the eyes of the world. We will look at the powers of this world and believe that they are the only means by which God moves, when in fact all the powers that be are ordained by God for a specific purpose.

The powers of this world were never ordained to build and oversee the Kingdom of God on the earth. Rather, it is the church's responsibility to exact the will of the Father concerning the Kingdom in the earth. The church is led by the Holy Ghost, and the powers that be, whoever they are, are always according to God's will.

However, if we do not accept this, when the rulers of this earth dishonor God, we will believe that God is failing in the earth. We will use our prayers as a mechanism to help God achieve what He is failing to do. However, God accomplishes His purpose with ease, and our prayers should be according to His will. A lack of prayer does not weaken the will of God. On the contrary, God always has His elect praying according to His will.

Once again, the purpose of Christ is given to the Church. It is our responsibility to deliver the lost from sin, and raise for God a holy people who will stand for Him in this evil world.

I dare say a majority of the prophets have lost sight of this. They, as aforementioned, cannot see beyond governments, presidents, kings, and prime ministers. Rather than seeking the move of the Holy Ghost in the land, they seek to instate unbelievers who uphold laws that partially reflect the principles of God. The country is subjected to these laws whether they like it or not. However, laws cannot deliver from sin.

> 2 Peter 3:13-14
> 13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.
> 14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

Seeing that this present earth shall pass away, our purpose must be the eternal security of souls. We must seek to have them escape the corruptions of this world, and secure their spot in heavenly Jerusalem.

I reiterate here, many of today's prophets have lost sight of this. They have become spiritual politicians, and their prophecies are according to this world, as opposed to the Kingdom of God. Moreover, their prophecies do not direct the global Body of Christ, but only their nation.

An Example

In 2021 here in the USA, there was a transition of power from President Trump to President Biden. Prior to this there were many prophecies that went forth regarding the election. Some proclaimed that Trump would endure a second term, however, this was far from the truth.

Now after it came to light that President Biden won, some of these prophets began doubling down on the proclamation they gave, despite it being revealed as false. On the other hand, there were few who had enough spiritual integrity to apologize to the people concerning what they had said.

What would cause a prophet to double down on words they have said but have been manifested as false? Firstly, they do not believe the scriptures, concerning prophecy.

They have made prophecy pliable. However, God is plain concerning it. The mere fact their prophecies did not come true should have been enough for them to realize that God did not speak, however, they are willing enough to either alter the prophecy or imply corruption in the natural realm.

However, God cannot lie, and His Word always comes to pass. The problem is, therefore, not with God but with us. We have replaced our trust in the heart and mind of God with a trust in the systems of this world. Therefore, to reveal this, God has allowed these prophets to prophesy out of their own hearts. The apparent falseness of the prophecy should have encouraged them to repent and examine their hearts, however, many have justified themselves before God.

Secondarily, they are entangled in the world. They have not perceived that the Church is a spiritual race here on earth. They cannot discern the mystery of Christ and its relevance to the Church's tenure on the earth.

The knowledge that the Church is a spiritual race causes us to set our affections on things above as opposed to the things of this earth. It encourages us to remain holy, and seek to rescue as many out of the world as possible. It encourages us to pray for all the powers that be, that they exact the will of God in the earth. It always points to eternity.

The false prophets, however, cannot see the divinity of the Church, because they are not under the order of God. For the church to return to the ways of God it must return to apostolic order as defined in Ephesians 4:11-15 and 1 Corinthians 12:28.

Apostolic order reveals the mystery of Christ, and exposes the perspective from which the Church should be seen. By this knowledge a prophet or any hearer can judge prophecy. Prophecy should be judged from the perspective of the mystery of Christ. It is time for the church to return to order.

Blessed are those who obey the Lord.
I love you so much,
Mary Banks, apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ

FALSE PROPHECIES

The following prophecies were concerning the 2020 Presidential Election in the USA.

Prophecies that President Trump would have a 2nd term.

Marcus Rodgers

"I don't believe Biden will be President, I don't. I'm not going to try and do a cop out and say maybe it's because Kamala Harris is going to be President. No, I believe right now, after all this prayer that I've been doing, that Trump will be President... Something big is coming. I don't know if it's going to happen how I think it's going to happen. I don't know if it's going to happen exactly on the inauguration day, I don't know but I know this, something big is coming."

Chris Yoon

"The Lord has anointed and has appointed Trump to be President for a 2nd term. It's not 2024, it's right now in the next couple of weeks."

Sid Roth

"I am speaking from the future at this moment, and I am going to proclaim that President Trump will be President of the United States in Jesus name."

Pat Robertson

"First of all I want to say without question Trump is going to win the election... that doesn't mean you sit home and don't vote, that means you get out and do everything you can to work, but he's going to win."

Mark Taylor

Interviewer: "Will it be an eight-year presidency?"
Mark Taylor: "Absolutely, absolutely we will."
Interview: "You're sure about that?
Mark Taylor: "Yeah I'm sure about that."

Kenneth Copeland laughs at the insinuation that Joe Biden will become President.

"The associated press said that Joe Biden is president…(he and his congregation begins to laugh)… Yea he's going to be President and Mickey Mouse is going to be King."

Kris Valloton apologizes for false prophecy

"First of all I want to congratulate President Biden and tell him that I'll be praying for him as I did for Trump, and President Obama and also President Bush. All these years I've been praying for presidents and I just want to say that I pray for your success, I pray for the success of our country. I believe that the lot was cast and the decision belongs to the Lord. So, you're not just the President of the United States, you're my president. I've said that many times with President Trump and President Obama.
But secondly, I really want to apologize, sincerely apologize for missing the Prophecy about Donald Trump. I prophesied that Donald Trump would be President 4 days after he declared himself a candidate…that was obviously right. Then later on I prophesied that he would not be impeached, in fact, that he would win another term and I was completely wrong.

I take full responsibility for being wrong. There's no excuse for it. I think it doesn't make me a false prophet but it does actually create a credibility gap. A lot of people trust me and my ministry and I want to say that I'm very sorry for everyone who put their trust in me and then there was this major mistake. Now I want to say I'm sorry and I want to look into the reasons why there's a disconnection there in what I heard. I have always believed that when you make a public declaration and if you get it wrong, you have to make a public apology."

II
As I was writing this, I heard the Lord say, "The knowledge of God is the Holy Ghost. There is no knowledge of God without the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. It is the power of the Holy Ghost that makes us one with God. All knowledge and all power of will and emotion belong to the Holy Ghost. He is the life we have been given. He is indeed the power of God.

THE PAPERBACK

MARY BANKS FAITH LIBRARY

Approximately 33 years ago the Lord spoke to Apostle Mary Banks and told her to document every revelation that the Lord speaks to her. Since then the Lord has taken her on a journey into the mind of Christ where He has taught her the Word of God at times with face to face experiences. She has stayed true to His intruction and documented all that the Lord has spoken. Now there are hundreds of documents and chapters on all manner of topics, and we have given you access to them all.

WHERE ARE THE REAL PROPHETS?

This book will explore the role God has ordained for the prophets of God. It will provide an in-depth look at the qualifications of those who are called to the prophetic ministry and the order of the prophetic gifts in the Church.
